

The Great Indoors Market at Bower

Welcome to The Great Indoors Market at Bower (aka TGIM), an exciting indoor market concept at Bower Place with approximately 12,000 sf located in a portion of the former Sears space. TGIM is a space where local and national retailers can come together in a curated space to offer a unique shopping experience. Officially launched November 10, 2018, this market has already incubated local entrepreneurs in an innovative retail environment that is unattainable online. This is experience based shopping at its finest. Enjoy the unique selfie spot and take a swing into your Instagram stories! Get involved in our one-of-a-kind event space that provides opportunities to get creative, teach something new, and maybe even elevate your personal fashion style. Step into the great indoors with us and experience a new shopping destination!
